BECOME A MEMBER

Zeitz MOCAA is a public not-for-profit museum dedicated to contemporary art from Africa and the world.

It consists of nine floors and 80 different galleries, of which 6,500m<sup>2</sup> is dedicated to white cube exhibition space, all housed in a unique re-imagining of what were once grain silos at Cape Town's V&A Waterfront.

The museum has a large, cutting edge permanent collection of contemporary art from Africa and its Diaspora, and hosts travelling exhibitions from around the world.

In addition to access to the museum, the many tiered benefits offered to members allows for a truly immersive experience within the stimulating and unexpected world of contemporary art from Africa and beyond.
