

ZEITZ MOCAA Architectural Fact Sheet

Project Overview

The V&A Waterfront, approached Heatherwick Studio to develop ideas for adapting the iconic grain silo at the Waterfront into a Museum. At the same time, the Zeitz Foundation was seeking a new permanent home for their collection of contemporary art from Africa and it's diaspora. The two programmes coincided and it was decided that the grain silo would be transformed into a new museum dedicated to contemporary art from Africa and its diaspora.

Client

V&A Waterfront Holdings (Pty) Ltd

Delivery Architects

Rick Brown Associates, Van der Merwe Miszewski Architects, Jacobs Parker

Project Manager

Mace

Structural Engineer

Arup / Sutherland

M&E / Sustainability Engineer

Arup / Solution Station

Developer

V&A Waterfront Holdings (Pty) Ltd

Contractor

WBHO

Heritage Consultant

Nicolas Bautan

Area/size

Total area: 102,000 square feet Exhibition space: 65,000 square feet

Designed by Heatherwick Studio Design Director

Thomas Heatherwick

Group Leader

Mat Cash

Project Leader

Stepan Martinovsky

Team

Simona Auteri, Ruggero Bruno Chialastri, Yao Jen Chuang, Francis Field, Sarah Gill, Xuanzhi Huang, Changyeob Lee, Julian Liang, Débora Mateo, Stefan Ritter, Luke Snow, Ondrej Tichý, Meera Yadave

Making Team

Lucie Beauvert, Einar Blixhavn, Erich Breuer, Alex Flood, Hayley Henry, Hannah Parker, Luke Plumbley, Matthew Pratt